SUMMARY OF RIGHTS AND REMEDIES UNDER THE ACL

The protection afforded to You under this Mechanical Protection Plan is in addition to and does not substitute for or reduce, the rights You have under the Australian Consumer Law (ACL). If and to the extent that You have a right to claim under the ACL, You may also need to claim under Your Mechanical Protection Plan.

The ACL protects consumers by automatically giving them basic, guaranteed rights for goods they purchase ('Consumer Guarantees') at no charge. For example, the ACL requires that, taking account of the nature of goods, the price, any representations made by the supplier or manufacturer and other relevant circumstances, the goods must be free of defects, do what they are meant to do, be safe, durable and acceptable in appearance and finish, be fit for any particular purpose that the consumer makes known, and comply with any description given or any demonstration model used.

In the event of a breach of a Consumer Guarantee where there is a major failure of the goods, consumers are entitled to reject the goods and choose a replacement or refund and claim compensation for any reasonably foreseeable loss or damage suffered by consumers as a result of the failure. Where the failure does not amount to a major failure, consumers are entitled to have the supplier repair or replace the goods (at the supplier's choice). Whether a specific failure breaches a Consumer Guarantee and a consumer is entitled to a remedy under the ACL will depend on the circumstances.

Consumer Guarantees have no set time limit but generally last for an amount of time that is reasonable to expect in the circumstances, given factors including the age, cost and quality of the goods, the use made of the goods or any representation made by the supplier or manufacturer.

Consumer Guarantees may continue even at the expiry of the Manufacturer's Warranty for the Caravan or this Mechanical Protection Plan. The exact amount of time that Consumer Guarantees last in the case of a specific purchase varies depending on the circumstances.

Your Caravan may also have an additional Statutory Warranty under State laws. The provisions of such warranties vary from State to State. Any Statutory Warranty may be in addition to or overlap the ACL and may also operate concurrently with the ACL.
